

Le Sirenuse

Cocktails

*I first heard of Positano from Alberto Moravia. It was very hot in Rome.
He said, "Why don't you go down to Positano on the Amalfi Coast?
It is one of the fine places in Italy".*

*Later, John McKnight of United States Information Service told me the same things. He had spent a year there working on a book.
Half dozen people echoed this.*

Positano kind of moved in on us and we found ourselves driving down to Naples on our way.

Positano bites deep. It is a dream place that isn't quite real when you are there and becomes beckoningly real after you have gone.

Jonh Steinbeck

from Harper's Baazar, May 1953

“Un Viaggio a Positano”

*Positano is a quaint, picturesque town with breathtaking coastal of views;
located in the Amalfi coast of Campania, Italy.
We invite you on a Journey to Positano through a sensorium experience that aims to transport you to this Mediterranean gem using Six elements that best represent Positano.*

Sole

Sun

“Some painters transform the sun into a yellow spot, others transform a yellow spot into the sun.”

Pablo Picasso

*Positano's Sun is powerful and intense, yet sweet and romantic.
Yields the best lemons, dries the tastiest tomatoes, and provides a rich life.
We translate such delicate intensity with the both, Grappa and Mezcal.*

Citrus, Cilantro, Heirloom Tomato Shrub

Yellow Chartreuse

Cedrata Tassoni Soda

Limoni

Lemons

*Nobody does Lemons like the Amalfi coast.
They cling from the trees and grow in every corner.
Their intoxicating scent lingers in the streets of Positano.
We tantalize your senses with an Amalfi Lemon Negroni;
all the bold flavors of southern Italy with a hint of Florida.*

Flowers

*“To find joy in the sky, the trees, the flowers...
There are always flowers for those who want to see them.”
Henri Matisse*

*Nothing represents Positano’s effortless beauty better than its flowers.
Here, the abundant bouquet of Roses, Petunias,
Bougainvilleas among many others, captivates the senses.
We translate these fragrances to your palate with a floral libation.*

Soil

*Il Contadino, The Farmer treats the soil as if it was one of his children.
They speak to the soil, they smell the soil, they grow the soil in a ritual passed from generations to generations in Italy.*

*The Amalfi coast is famous for abundant vegetables, wheat and tomatoes.
Here we pay homage to the lavish land with an Earthy Old Fashioned.*

Sea

"Time is more complex near the sea than in any other place."

John Steinbeck

Many poems have been written in Positano.

Here, the sea is the reason why you visit,

but it becomes the memory that stays within you forever.

We bring you the Mediterranean Sea in the form of a Vodka Martini.

Be surprised by the combination of these flavors.

Vodka Beluga

Black Taggiasca Olive

Caffè

Coffee

*“In Naples, coffee is a world in itself, both culturally and socially.
Coffee is a ritual carried out in solidarity.”*
Andrea Illy

PRENDIAMO UN CAFFÈ! “Let’s get a coffee!”
Appropriate anytime, is simply an espresso, a small but strong shot of black coffee, Italians often sip a caffè as an afternoon pick-me-up or after a meal.
*Here we combine the Tiramisù with the world famous
